A very strange season. It started with a great win when Mike Hatch ended the Normanby Hall innings with a hat trick and finished with an eminently forgettable game at Redcar. In between was a very mixed bag, but at least this year there has been more luck with the toss than in recent seasons.

In the league there were 2 century partnerships 1 for the 1st wicket and 1 for the 2nd. There were 15 other partnerships of more than 50; 3 each for the 1st and 3rd wickets, 2 for the 2nd, 4 for the 4th, and 1 each for the 5th, 6th and 8th. There does not seem to have been the same consistency of batting as last year due, in part, to the unavoidable absence of some of the more senior players for all or part of the season. For the first time in more than 10 years nobody has scored an individual century nor has anyone made a total of 500 runs.

The professional appeared to find it difficult to adjust to the different conditions here compared with Australia and so the bowling sometimes looked a bit thin on the ground and this made it difficult to contain the opposition at times.

In contrast there were some very good results in the cup competitions the outstanding one being the Kestridge Cup match against Quisborough. Reaching the semi-finals of four of the seven cups that were entered was a fine achievement.

In spite of finishing in the lower half of the table (9th out of 16) we gained more points (just) than we gave away 272 to 269 but our average runs per wicket was less than the oppositions.

Tony Gray, Scott Muller and I were this season's over-presents. The total playing time was 176 hours 16 min, but one or two hours were also spent waiting for the rain to stop — and sometimes it never did. In all I recorded 17,973 balls, 2940.4 overs, 511 maidens, 10036 runs from the bat, 344 byes, 513 leg byes, 75 wides scoring 82 runs, 248 no balls scoring 191 extras, 532 wickets, 969 fours and 70 sixes.
